Course Description

This online course will address issues frequently seen by Guardians ad Litem with information delivered by some of the leading experts in the field as well as a select group of judges and magistrates. This course is designed using up-to-date, evidence-based information to enhance a GAL's understanding of high-conflict families and issues related to relocation and alienation in cases of parental separation. This course will also discuss the pros and cons of the parenting time recommendations provided in the guidebook Planning for Parenting Time - Ohio's Guide for Parents Living Apart.
